

To: Dagseth, Renee[Dagseth.Renee@epa.gov]; Vergeront, Julie[Vergeront.Julie@epa.gov];
Smith, Judy[Smith.Judy@epa.gov]
From: McClintock, Katie
Sent: Fri 2/5/2016 4:48:19 PM
Subject: RE: Bullseve Glass - EPCRA 313 self-disclosure file available

Thanks Renee —

I kept trying to come over to ask you yesterday and got distracted every time. I would love to see the disclosure. Can you set on my chair?

From: Dagseth, Renee
Sent: Friday, February 05, 2016 8:45 AM
To: Vergeront, Julie <Vergeront.Julie@epa.gov>; McClintock, Katie <McClintock.Katie@epa.gov>; Smith, Judy <Smith.Judy@epa.gov>
Subject: Bullseve Glass - EPCRA 313 self-disclosure file available

Hi,

If it is of any use to you, I have located the 2005 self-disclosure file for Bullseye Glass. The enforcement file from the late 90's likely was recently destroyed – I will confirm that if you think it would be useful.

Renée Dagseth

Toxics Release Inventory Coordinator

U.S. Environmental Protection Agency

Region 10, OCE 101

dagseth.renee@epa.gov

206-553-1889